Recruitment Policy – Third Six Pupillage

---

Application and scope

---

1. This policy sets out the manner in which Mountford Chambers advertises for, processes, and considers applications for third six pupillages. Whilst the BSB does not encourage the term “third six pupillage” because it has no regulatory status, we use the term for convenience to describe the period:
  - a. between successful completion of a 12-month pupillage;<sup>1</sup> and
  - b. commencement of the barrister’s first tenancy.
2. This policy applies to applications from barristers who have completed pupillage at another set of chambers but have not previously been a tenant of another set of chambers.
3. This policy does not apply to the recruitment of established practitioners, Door Tenants, third six pupils who have completed 12-month pupillage at Carmelite Chambers, or 12-month pupils.
