Notable Crime cases

R v Bedford

---

Defending attempted murder, following attack on a female neighbour with a knife. Complex psychiatric evidence. Trial as to fitness and then trial on the facts.

R v Graham

---

Prosecuting complex attempted murder and rape. Stalker obsessed with former partner, raped her, then attacked her innocent male friend. Evidentially complex as there was no forensic evidence or eyewitnesses.

---

R v Rought

---

Cut-throat defence. Reliability of main Crown witness with mental illness was a key issue.

---

R v Webber

---

House of Lords. Prosecuting where three defendants charged with conspiracy to murder, two of whom were also charged with a firearms offence. Appeal dismissed. Lord Bingham delivered the opinion: a positive suggestion put to a witness by or on behalf of a defendant might amount to a fact relied on in his defence for the purpose of section 34 even if that suggestion was not accepted by the witness.

R v Johnson

---

Defending murder.

R v Warren

---

Defending double murder.

---

R v Trott, R v Murphy and R v Dobbing

---

Part of Operation Burton: Gangland war involving firearms, multi-million pound drugs, multi-handed defendants, involving complex informant "super grass" evidence against former gang.

---

R v Timney

---

Prosecuting murder.

---

R v Edge

---

Leading member of the English Defence League, 4 week trial in Birmingham in a violent disorder.

---

R v Lakey

---

---

Prosecuted headmistress for historic sexual offences whilst in position of trust against two young male pupils. Extensive evidential arguments and managing vulnerable witnesses in nationally high-profile case. Convicted of all counts.

---

R v Mohammed

---

Operation Sanctuary. Largest investigation into sexual exploitation against vulnerable women and girls across the North East. Defending charges of multiple rape, inciting prostitution, drug supply, trafficking for sexual exploitation. Acquitted at trial.

---

R v Islam

---

Defending in multi-handed sexual exploitation case. Rape allegations linked to Operation Sanctuary. Vulnerable complainants. Difficult and complex disclosure issues.

R v Robinson

---

Defending allegations of multi-handed, inter-familial historic (30 years) sexual abuse. Co-defendant's brothers with convictions for familial sexual offending. Particularly vulnerable complainant. Acquitted at trial.

R v Mitchell

Difficult point of law: lower court. Prosecuted 'misconduct in a public office' case involving an ambulance driver alleged to have sexually assaulted a patient. Case was one of a series of cases prosecuted to clarify the test as to "public office holder".

---

R v F

---

Acting for the CPS in a defence appeal to the Court of Appeal. Defendant charged with making indecent photographs of a child, possessing indecent photographs of a child and sexual assault on a child – over 21 counts.

R v Todd

---

Defending in difficult rape trial as the defendant had a personality disorder.

R v Joginder Chall

---

Allegations from multiple complainants regarding historical sexual abuse dating back to the 1980's. Lead appellant in conjoined appeal. Court of Appeal leading authority on use of Victim Impact Statements (VIS).

---

---

R v McGee and R v McLure

---

Operation Seabrook. Lead defendant in allegations of historical sexual abuse and violence to young offenders at Medomsley Detention Centre over a prolonged period, including charges of misconduct in public office. High profile case with extensive press attention and pending multi-million pound compensation claims.

---
