

Lily Martin

Call 2025

clerks@mountfordchambers.com

020 7936 6300

Prior to commencing pupillage, Lily worked in senior roles within public affairs, advising on complex regulatory matters, with special concentration in the financial services and technology sectors. Her broader professional experience also includes international work in East and West Africa, where she managed cross-border infrastructure development projects.

Lily completed the Bar Practice Course with Distinction and holds an LLM in Law and Legal Practice. Lily is also the current Dame Lois Browne-Evans Scholar, awarded by the Bermuda Bar Association.

Lily is currently under the supervision of Jim Olphert.

Education

- BPP University (2025), Bar Professional Training Course, Distinction
- BPP University (2024), Master of Law and Legal Practice, Merit
- University College London (2018), English Literature and Language

Scholarships/Awards

- Dame Lois Browne-Evans Scholarship (2025)